

Southbroom Bowling Club Newsletter – May 2022

Dear Bowlers,

- 1) Welcome to new members Adriaan and Renaldia Henn.
- 2) Thanks go to everyone who helped on the KZN Pairs weekend, to all the markers over the club championship weekend, and to Heather and Malcolm for standing in for Glenn and Sue.
- 3) Congratulations to:
 - Mark Kassner and Cleve on winning the Novices' Invitational, Gerhard & Julie came 13th out of 28.
 - Tony and Osie on winning the KBA Men's Pairs. They gave two RSC teams a good hiding on their own green
 - Julie and Glenn on winning the club's singles championships.
- 4) New shirts have been ordered and should be here soon.
- 5) A plan to improve the terrace has been suggested. Cleve will report further when there is a written proposal. Eskom-proof light bulbs will be
- 6) Glyn will recommence the supervised coaching sessions on Thursday 14th July. Please let him know directly if you would like to attend.
- 7) Well done to Eileen and Helen for getting the ladies' Friday school going; contact them if you would like to attend.
- 8) Glenn has produced a new roster for bar duty which will be on display. Please call the bar staff if you need service and keep out of the bar. If you draw cash, be sure to EFT the amount promptly. And please return any bar keys that might have been overlooked: we are missing a couple of sets.
- 9) We would like to play the finals of the Men's, Ladies' and Mixed Nominated Pairs competitions on Sunday 31st July. Please arrange your fixtures and get them played: a temporary WhatsApp group works well.
