

Southbroom Bowling Club Newsletter – August 2023

- 1) Congratulations to Tony on his silver medal in the KBA Champion of Champions, Glyn on his bronze in the KBA Men's Veterans' Singles, and Eileen on reaching the last 16 of the KZN Singles.
- 2) Thanks go again to Dave Campbell for smartening up the bread boards, to Harry for fixing the clubhouse steps, CW for fixing the shelf in the ladies' lockers and installing a new bar light, Tony for updating the Honours boards, and especially to Rebcon (Rhett and his son Warren Butler) for the new handrails for the ramp. Thanks also to Rhett for making improvements to the bar. Thanks to Alf Dickerson for sponsoring the enclosing of the west window and the installation of a "tv" screen.
- 3) Welcome to new full members Bruno Lolli and Carol Renniers, and to new social member Denise Butler.
- 4) Well done to Gerhard and Kim Uys on winning the quiz. The first Sunday Lunch at The Whistling Wood pop-up restaurant was a huge success: thanks go to Adrienne and Brian Rogers of Asado Catering. The next event, with a Heritage Day theme, is scheduled for Sunday 24th September, and the one following will be a day-time Oktoberfest with craft beer on Saturday 14th October.
- 5) The date of the proposed four-team sporting event has been deferred until the last weekend in November, and the club's Handicap Singles weekend will now be held on 9th and 10th December (Margate is holding an 85th birthday tournament the previous weekend).
- 6) The annual general meeting will be held on Friday 29th September at 5.30pm.
- 7) Upcoming events:
